

Tenth Memory Program FAQ

1. Should the child memorize both the question and answer of the catechism? Yes, both should be included to receive credit.
2. Should the child memorize the Scripture reference with the verses? Yes, this will allow the child to return to the Bible for answers.
3. Can longer passages be “broken up”? Yes, a long passage may be broken up into segments for better recitation and comprehension.
4. When do children recite their memory work? Children may recite the memory work at the beginning of the Bible School time before classes begin. Normally, one of the teachers or a member of the memory work team will listen to the recitation.
5. Where do children recite their memory work? The child recites their memory work in or very near the Bible School classrooms. It will always be in the same area each week to prevent confusion.
6. Should the parent accompany the child as they recite their memory work? We discourage parents from accompanying their child because it places undue pressure upon the child and may inappropriately influence the recitation of the child’s work.
7. What if a child is sick, traveling or otherwise absent at a point where all memory work is due? The child may recite their work to a teacher, an elder, or the Bible School principal in person, if convenient, or, as a last resort, over the phone. Work recited over the phone is on the honor system and assumes a parent is also present to prevent the temptation of reading the passage (and parent’s lips!).
8. What is the deadline for completing memory work? Again, the focus of the memory work is that our children will “store up God’s Word in their hearts” (Psalm 119:11). However, camp scholarships provide a wonderful incentive and Christian camping allows our children to hear the Gospel within a different context. Children (grades 2-6) who complete their memory work will receive a camp scholarship. (Families should register early at camp for the week/s their child especially wants to attend.) The first deadline on last Sunday in March, will include not only the full week at camp, but the Bible School will reimburse the registration fee to the family as well. The last Sunday in May is the final deadline for receiving a camp scholarship. Grades 7-10 may receive up to $150 for memorizing assigned Scripture verses ($50), catechism ($50) and theological essay ($50). We encourage families to plan ahead for how this money may be used to promote spiritual growth (use for mission projects, Christian books, Christian camping experience, etc.)
9. What if a family begins attending Tenth in the middle of the school year? A pro-rated representative list of verses will be assigned by the Bible School principal. Completion prior to the deadline will win a camp scholarship but the family will be responsible for the registration fee.
10. What if the child is learning disabled? We want to be sensitive to all levels of learning and comprehension. We will be glad to consult with parents and devise a memory plan for each child. This will be done on an case by case basis.
